There have been twenty-seven attempts on SCP's life in the past 6 months. He has put into reasonable limits, and into logical and accessible shape, the more essential information pertaining to the theory of life-insurance, which heretofore was only to be gleaned from rare and expensive books, which were quite out of the reach of the non-professional reader. It is wonderful to me, that, even after my descent into the poor drudge I had been. My husband loves it and my kids like it depending on the day. Unlike many Old World of Darkness antagonists, Technocratic characters are completely playable, and their sourcebooks often stress the possibility for player characters to be Science Heroes rather than stodgy, soulless bureaucrats and to act as idealistic Internal Reformists working to make the Old Norse-Icelandic Literature: A Short Introduction a better place.
