The approach of Abidi et al. You'd have to make sure to immerse yourself in the history, and present day situations of your country, since you'd become the future leader one day. It does not matter what you call it, a revival, a reformation, an awakening, a return to the Lord, a move of God, repentance, it has happened many times in the Bible and many times in Church history. It was the first time that a German institution had ever agreed to such a ceremony.

I enjoyed this more than I thought I. What I liked even more, incurable romantic that I am, was that they didn't want to do it on their own once they had met.
